HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS

Mr. Reed of Dallas called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. C. R. No. 32, Memorializing Congress in regard to interstate commerce, etc.

The Speaker laid the resolution before the House, with the Senate amendments.

EXPRESSING APPRECIATION TO MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE

The Speaker laid before the House, and had read, the following communication:

Austin, Texas, March 15, 1935.

To the Members of the Forty-fourth Legislature, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

Gentlemen: Please accept my thanks for your kindness and thoughtfulness in sending me flowers during my recent inability to retain my appendix.

Although I could not smell these flowers, they looked very charming and were a thing of beauty and a temporary joy, thus helping me to pass my enforced sojourn with a greater degree of patience.

Again assuring you of my appreciation and eagerly looking forward to resuming my work with you, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

EUGENE WORLEY.

(Mr. Russell in the Chair.)

NAMING ADDITIONAL MASCOT OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Dunagan offered the following resolution:

Whereas, We have with us today a proper person for the office of Mascot of the House of Representatives for the Forty-fourth Legislature; and

Whereas, The House of Representatives has heretofore selected and elected other Mascots for the House of Representatives of the Forty-fourth Legislature; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Cecil A. Lotief, Jr., son of our distinguished member, Cecil A. Lotief, Sr., of Cross Plains, be, and is hereby, officially named by this House as Mascot of the House of Representatives of the Forty-fourth Legislature of the State of Texas; and be it further

Resolved, That said Mascot have his picture made and placed with the members of the House in the official group of this body when said official group picture is provided for.

DUNAGAN,
BUTLER of Brazos.

The resolution was read second time, and was adopted.

DESIGNATING COWBOY ARTIST OF TEXAS

Mr. Harris of Archer offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 48, Designating cowboy artist of Texas.

Whereas, J. M. (Tex) Moore was born on a ranch near Fort Worth, Texas, November 24, 1865, and followed the life of a cowboy in Texas for many years, later serving the Lone Star State as a Texas Ranger and scout in the second Geronimo campaign in Arizona against the Apaches, being at the present time a resident of Henrietta, Clay County, Texas; and

Whereas, The above experience equipped J. M. (Tex) Moore admirably to pursue his God-given talent of painting, in which paintings he has perpetuated and glorified the achievements of the Western cowhand to the extent that he could be called the dean of all Western landscape artists. As a youngster, in the capacity of a cowboy and later as a Texas Ranger and Scout, he rode over the great open space of Texas, seeing it with the eyes of a cowboy, the natural consequence being that he depicts in his paintings the West in its natural state, where so many heroes laid down their lives in order that we might enjoy the fruits of a civilized nation; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That J. M. (Tex) Moore be designated by the Legislature of Texas as "Cowboy Artist of Texas."

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Harris of Archer, the resolution was referred to the Committee on State Affairs.

PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO STUDY COTTON EXPORT

Mr. Knetsch offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 50, Providing for appointment of a committee to study cotton export.

Whereas, Texas produces practically one-third of the Nation's cotton, 90 per cent of which production is exported to foreign countries; therefore the maintenance of foreign markets is of vital concern to all Texas; and

Whereas, Statistics show that since August 1, 1934, to March 1, 1935, the American cotton exports were 2,321,000 bales less than a comparable period a year previous; and

Whereas, The records show that American gin manufacturing companies, during the year of 1934, have sold to foreign cotton countries more than five and one-half times as much gin machinery as in any previous year; and

Whereas, The gravity of the situation is sufficient to warrant the careful consideration of the problems involved by this Legislature, and in order to approach the same intelligently, a committee should be appointed by both House and Senate to consider all phases of the questions involved in the situation revealed by the foregoing facts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That a committee of eight members be appointed, of which five shall be named by the Speaker of the House and three shall be named by the President of the Senate, and the committee thus constituted be empowered and authorized to make an intensive study of the cotton export situation and report back to this Legislature the results of its findings.

KNETSCH,
FUCHS,
MORSE,
POPE,
OLSEN,
TARWATER,
THORNTON,
JONES of Wise.

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Alexander, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

(Speaker in the Chair.)

PROVIDING FOR CERTAIN COMMISSION ON INTERSTATE CO-OPERATION

Mr. Butler of Brazos offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 57, Providing for an unpaid commission on interstate co-operation.

Be it resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, That:

1. There is hereby established the State of Texas Commission on Interstate Co-operation, whose function it shall be to perfect the participation of this State in the Council of State Governments, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining governmental machinery to facilitate communication, negotiation, understanding, and cooperation between the State of Texas and the other States of the Union, both regionally and nationally.

2. The Commission shall report to the Governor and to the Legislature on the first day of each regular legislative session, and at such other times as it deems proper. Its members shall serve without compensation, but they shall be paid their necessary expenses in carrying out their obligations under this resolution. It may employ a secretary and such other assistants as are needed in the performance of its duties, or it may share the expense of such employment with similar commissions of other States.

3. The said Commission shall be composed of fifteen members, namely:

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Co-operation of the Senate;

The five members of the Committee on Interstate Co-operation of the House of Representatives; and Five officials of the State named by the Governor, one of whom shall be designated by him as the chairman of the Commission.

4. The said committees of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, hereby or heretofore established, shall be standing committees, and their members shall be designated as are the members of other standing committees. These committees shall function during the regular sessions of the Legislature, and also during the interim periods between such sessions; their members shall serve until their successors are designated; and they shall constitute the delegates of the Councils of the American Legislators Association.

5. The Secretary of the State of Texas shall forthwith communicate the text of this measure to the Governor and to the Legislature of each of the other States of the Union, with the respectful request that each Legislature shall enact a measure similar to this resolution, thus establishing a similar commission with like duties and powers, and thus joining with this State in the common cause of reducing the burdens which are imposed upon our citizens by governmental confusion, competition, and conflict.

BUTLER of Brazos,
McKEE,
ROGERS.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Fox moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on State Affairs.

Mr. Lucas moved to table the resolution.

Question first recurring on the motion to table, it was lost.

Question next recurring on the motion by Mr. Fox, that the resolution be referred to the Committee on State Affairs, it prevailed.
